Subcutaneous Olanzapine LAI was Designed to Resolve Eli Lilly's PDSS-Linked Market Failure

Risk of PDSS* associated with Eli Lilly product's

- Overdose-like reaction risk at each injection (< 0.1%)
- Caused by unintended intravascular burst exposure during injection

Regulatory restrictions on use

- Mandatory 3-hour monitoring on site after each injection
- Restricted distribution (REMS)

* Post-Injection Delirium and Sedation Syndrome

Data Support a Favorable Safety Profile, Including No Observed PDSS During Clinical Development

Existing long-acting olanzapine constrained by REMS and 3-hour
PDSS monitoring

Subcutaneous Olanzapine LAI has shown no observed PDSS across 4,000 injections during clinical studies

→ In vitro data support these findings

“No required monitoring for Medincell Olanzapine LAI is expected to drive Olanzapine LAI usage growth.”

SOLARIS - Pivotal Phase 3

Phase 3 randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled (Period 1), open- label long-term safety (Period 2) trial to evaluate efficacy, safety in adult patients with acute exacerbation of schizophrenia

Period 1 (8 weeks, n=675) aimed to assess the efficacy and safety, of TEV- '749 schizophrenia.

In Period 2 (n=423), Period 1 TEV-'749 participants retained their treatment, placebo patients were re-randomized 1:1:1 to TEV-'749 (318 mg, 425 mg, or 531 mg).

TEV-'749 doses were comparable to daily oral olanzapine doses of 10 mg, 15 mg, and 20 mg.

a. Participants entering the trial who had not previously received oral olanzapine within the last year received 2 oral doses of olanzapine for 2 consecutive days at the screening period to assess tolerability. The investigator verified the previous use, tolerability, and duration of olanzapine treatment to assure prior tolerability.
b. To maintain the blinding in Period 1, all participants were re-randomized between Periods 1 and 2; participants previously assigned to the active treatment groups retained their Period 1 treatment assignment (rerandomization was done to maintain blinding of Period 1, and de facto is a deterministic assignment and not randomization), and participants previously assigned to placebo were randomized to one of the active treatment groups in a 1:1:1 ratio. Participants were hospitalized for >28 days after receiving the first injection. QM, once monthly; R, randomization.
