UZEDY® continues to be the fastest-growing long-acting injectable treatment for schizophrenia in the U.S. Prescriptions, normalized into months of therapy, increased 62% year-on-year, supported by improved hospital access and continued expansion of the prescriber base, with more than 800 new prescribers added per month.[1]

UZEDY® is a subcutaneous risperidone long-acting injectable (LAI) approved in the U.S. for the treatment of schizophrenia (one- and two-month dosing) and Bipolar I Disorder (one-month dosing).

UZEDY® is the first commercial product using Medincell's BEPO® technology and is marketed in the United States by Teva. Following its recent FDA approval, the U.S. launch of WELTRUZA™, a once-monthly subcutaneous olanzapine LAI based on the same technology platform, is underway. Both products use Medincell's technology under a worldwide licensing agreement with Teva, with the same economic terms.

About Medincell

Medincell is a clinical- and commercial-stage innovation-driven biopharmaceutical company developing and licensing long-acting injectable treatments across multiple therapeutic areas. Our innovative treatments are designed to ensure adherence to medical prescriptions, enhance the effectiveness and accessibility of medicines, and reduce their environmental impact.

These treatments combine active pharmaceutical ingredients with our proprietary BEPO® / BEPO® Star technologies, which enable controlled drug delivery at therapeutic levels for several days, weeks, or months following a subcutaneous or local injection of a small, fully bioresorbable depot.

Risperidone LAI was the first treatment based on BEPO® technology to receive FDA approval, initially for schizophrenia in April 2023 (one- and two-month dosing), and subsequently for Bipolar I Disorder in October 2025 (one-month dosing). It is marketed in the United States by Teva under the brand name UZEDY®.

Olanzapine LAI as a once-monthly treatment for schizophrenia in adults received FDA approval in October 2026 with launch in the United States by Teva under the brand name WELTRUZA™ planned in Q4 2026. A European Marketing Authorization Application (MAA) for Olanzapine LAI was also accepted by EMA in May 2026.

Medincell's investigational pipeline includes numerous innovative therapeutic candidates in various stages of development, from formulation to Phase 3 clinical trials. We collaborate with leading pharmaceutical companies and foundations to advance global health through new treatment options.

Headquartered in Montpellier, France, Medincell employs over 150 people representing more than 27 nationalities.
